LA DOLCE VITA

La Dolce Vita

which has always enchanted the audience around the world described by F.Fellini, P.Sorrentino as

The Great Italian Beauty is the karma of a country which,

since the time of the Romans, swings forever

between richness and sweet life,

Pleasures of life

... La Dolce Vita

"Italy is crazy, but beautiful.
I wish that his madness was directed towards beauty, instead of being wasted on things that they forget that the resources of Italy are inherent in its own beauty."
(P. Sorrentino)
